

Creating a Literacy Rich Environment
Presented by: Maryland Family Network and the Maryland
Child Care Resource Network

Maryland Family Network and the Resource Centers of the Maryland Child Care Resource Network will be hosting a number of trainings for family child care providers on creating a literacy rich learning environments. These sessions are based on the work of the Children's Literacy Initiative, and give early care and education providers a framework for considering literacy in all aspects of their program. All sessions will consist of a day long training including topics on how to create a literacy rich environment and an opportunity to apply some of the ideas to your learning environment.
